-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-6, drawn to a method, classified in class 606, subclass 213.
 - II. Claims 7-11, drawn to a device, classified in class 600, subclass 201.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the device as claimed in Group II can be used as a surgical tissue retractor. Further, the method of Group I can be performed without using the device of Group II.
3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. Applicant's election of claims 1-6 in the reply filed on June 8, 2006, is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Objections

5. Claim 3 is objected to because of the following informalities: "introducing and anvil" appears to be a typographical error. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the bowel" in line 6. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
8. Claim 3 recites the limitation "said flexible body portion" in line 3 and in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

10. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nolan et al (US 2004/0087977).

Art Unit: 3731

11. Regarding claim 1, Nolan et al disclose the method substantially as claimed including the steps of isolating the upper stomach portion of a patient's stomach, introducing an anvil adapted for use with an anastomosis instrument through a side region of the upper stomach portion, resecting the bowel, and connecting the resecting bowel portion and the upper stomach portion with a circular anastomosis instrument (paragraph 0015).

12. Regarding claim 2, Nolan et al disclose isolating the upper stomach portion with a linear stapler in such a way that a protrusion is formed on a side region of the upper stomach portion (paragraph 0016).

13. Regarding claims 3-5, Nolan et al disclose a method of inserting an anvil comprising insertion of a surgical instrument through an opening in a bottom region of the upper stomach portion, wherein a flexible body has a tip that can be flexed and rotated (or reticulated) and is adapted to be releaseably attached to the anvil (paragraph 0065, lines 9-14); wherein when the anvil is attached to the tip it is carried through the upper stomach portion and then passed through the bottom region of both the upper stomach and bowel portions so that an anastomosis is created by juxtaposing the upper stomach and bowel when a circular anastomosis stapling instrument is actuated (paragraph 0077).

14. Regarding claim 6, Nolan et al disclose the excision and sealing of the upper stomach portion after the anvil is carried through the upper stomach portion (paragraph 0017).

Conclusion

Art Unit: 3731

15. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US 2004/0045562, US 5,104,025, and US 5,327,914.
